

Elective Objectives

Complete patient evaluations including history taking and physical exam.

Generate an appropriate differential diagnosis.

Develop appropriate treatment plans.

Apply the principles of evidence-based practice to patient care

Demonstrate knowledge of basic clinical and social sciences related to medical practice

Apply basic science knowledge to pathophysiology of patient diseases

Identify and address personal learning needs.

Demonstrate effective communication with patients

Demonstrate effective communication with peers, supervisors, and healthcare staff

Work collaboratively with others to solve problems

Coordinate care by consulting with and making referrals to other healthcare providers.

Demonstrate behavior that reflects personal integrity and the Rush ICARE values.